Sunday School At First Baptist

Sunday School is very important at First Baptist Church. Besides the Bible study, Sunday School also offers you the opportunity to be with others around your own age and with whom you have things in common. It is especially important if you are accustomed to a smaller church; Sunday School is where everyone knows one another. With Sunday School, our church can be both small enough for fellowship and large enough to offer a complete range of ministries. You haven’t completely tried First Baptist until you have tried Sunday School.

Adult Division—8:45 a.m.

At First Baptist our adult classes are not strictly age-graded. People often try several classes before they find the one that fits them. Sometimes, people find a class outside their exact age-group, but they feel at home and are welcomed. Profiles of the classes are provided in this brochure to help you decide where to start. In classes marked, “co-ed” men and women attend, but you don’t necessarily have to have a spouse with you. Some members attend these classes without a spouse; sometimes the spouse teaches in another class.

Adults have two options for Sunday School: 8:45 a.m. or 10:00 a.m. Worship services are offered at the same times. The following Sunday School classes are offered during the 8:45 hour:

Couples 20-34: Abe & Brooke Rigby, Teachers, Room 303. This class is for couples with or without children.

Co-ed 30-40: , Teacher, Room 207. A discussion class for 30’s and 40’s. This is not a couples only class.

Co-ed 35-45: Jonny Ettinger, Teacher, Room 203. This discussion class is primarily—though not exclusively—couples.

Solo at Church: Deborah Johns teaches this NEW class for young to middle age women who come to church by themselves. Meet in room 208

“The law of the Lord
is perfect, reviving
the soul...”
Psalm 19:7

Co-ed 40-55: Steve Stokes, Teacher, Room 301. If you just want to listen and learn and would prefer not to be called on to read or offer an opinion, this may be the class for you.

Co-ed 45-60: Bruce Brown, Teacher, Room 201. Not limited to couples only, this class studies scriptures book by book.

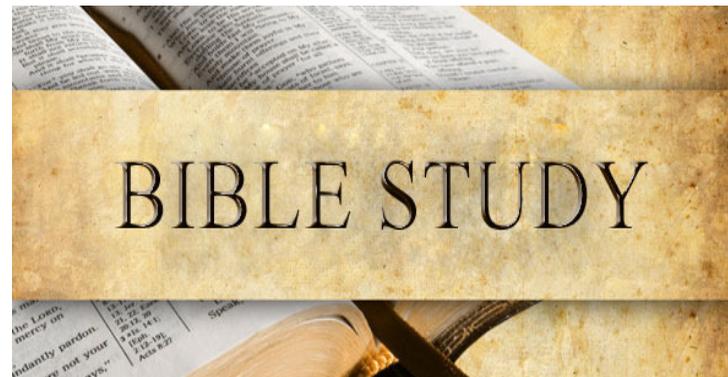

Co-ed 60-up: Al Harris, Teacher, Fireside Room. This is a class of mostly – though not exclusively – retired people. Most members – though not all – are couples. Part-discussion, part-lecture format.

Co-ed 60-up: This newly formed class is taught by Sid Edwards. Most of the people –but not all- in this class are retired. Some members of this class are new comers to FBC Tallassee. Room 206

Women 55-up: Carolyn Miller, Teacher, Room 205. This class has a half-discussion, half-lecture format. There is a fairly wide range of ages in the class, though most are career women and retired women. All are active.

Women 60-up: Rotating roster of teachers, Room 204. This is a discussion class for ladies. Most of their husbands are retired. And most of these ladies are lifelong residents of the Tallassee area.

Baraca 65-up: Rotating roster of teachers, Room 200. Baraca is the Hebrew word for “blessing”. For many decades all men of all ages attended the Baraca Class. It continues to be a class for men of all ages, though most members are of retirement age. Lecture format; you will not be called upon to read or discuss.

Adult Division—10:00 a.m.

The following Sunday School classes are offered during the 10:00 a.m. hour:

College (co-ed): Chris Lackey Teacher, Room 207. This class is for those in college or college age.

Young Professionals (co-ed): Matt Higgins, Teacher, room 208. The ‘Young Pros’ class is for those out of college or beyond college age.

Co-ed 30-45: Scott Ledbetter, Teacher, Room 303. A high percentage of this classes’ members are from the Tallassee area, mainly of people in their mid-20s to mid-30s. This class has a ‘folksy’ style and though with some lecture, members feel free to engage in discussion.

Co-ed 35-45: Mickey Garnett, Teacher, Room 200. A discussion class for men and women, mostly in their 30s through their 40s.

Co-ed 35-45: Jeff Baker, Teacher, Room 203, A round-table, discussion class predominately made up of men and women in their early 40s.

Co-ed 40-55: Chuck Jeter, Teacher, Room 301. This is a true discussion class. Hardly anyone in this class grew up in this area. Several members have military backgrounds or teach school.

Co-ed 45-60: Charles Ames, Teacher, Room 206. This class is predominately a couples’ class of 40-somethings and 50-somethings. Many members of this class live in the Tallassee area. A fair percentage are not from the Tallassee area at all. Half-discussion, half-lecture format.

Adult Men: Ron McDaniel, Teacher, Room 202, Members generally range from ‘50-something’ to their late 60’s. If you want a small discussion class for men this may be your favorite.

Ages 50 & Up (co-ed): Jim Vaught, Teacher, Fireside Room. Most members – though not all – are couples. Part-discussion, part-lecture format.

Women 50-75: Dr. Michelle Mitchell, Teacher, Room 204. There is a wide range of ages in this discussion format class.

Special Friends: Toni McGhar & Michael Swicord teach this special needs class. This class meets in room 201.
